AUTHOR TURNS FAMILY MEMORIES INTO BOOKS

LOVELAND - A new venture by resident Heidi Bright Parales helps families preserve memories in an unusual way.

Parales, an author and owner of Bright Concepts Co. - which provides professional writing, editing, publication design and photography - now can record people's stories and place them in heirloom books that they can pass along to their children and grandchildren. The book is based on interviews with the subject and includes photos.

The volume can be printed or sent to a recipient electronically. Costs vary by how many hours of interviewing you want of your subject; the range runs from 1 to 20 hours. To produce the book, it then takes about 15 hours of writing and editing time per interview hour.
